$20 per person participating in the driving hunt ($25 after March 1st)

General Rules: No more than 2 people per team allowed. All items collected MUST be taken back with participants unless the item on the list is for charitable purposes. There will be a winner in each hunt. In the event of a tie, team who finishes with the best time and most items from the list will be declared winner in both walking and driving scavenger hunts.

Walking Scavenger Hunt Rules: Teams will have from noon to 3pm to complete the list distributed on day of event. The list may include picking up small items and participants should bring a back-pack to hold the items. No one will be permitted to turn in items past 3pm. Additional rules will be given on day of event.

Driving Scavenger Hunt Rules: One person from each team MUST have a valid drivers license. Participants will have from noon to 4pm to collect as many items from the list distributed on day of event. In order to complete the list, small purchases may have to be made. If you are strategic enough, you can complete the scavenger hunt at a minimal cost. Team who collects all or most of the items and completes the tasks will be declared winner. In the event of tie, team who finishes with the best time wins. No one will be permitted to turn in items past 4pm. Additional rules will be given on day of event.
